Classic Rocksongs Without A Fuss, But A Harp & Noise

johnny3000, from Berlin, Germany, was founded in the springtime of 2006 and perform since then loud or unplugged.

johnny3000 play a raw singer/songwriter rock with a harp and a pulsing guitar coming from an old Orange Amp.

We love simplicity. It's the top priority of our music and lyrics. And we won't exert trying to create some sort of innovative or experimentell sound.

We see ourselves in the tradition of Blues, Folk and Country, Rock'n'Roll and Punk. And if you love what we love, Bob Dylan and The Clash, Neil Young and Lou Reed, Tom Petty and The Ramones...

If you are looking for the authentic, genuine, true and heartbreaking Rock, whatever you call it, Indie, Country, Nu-, Post-, Punk...

If you just want some Straight & Classic Rocksongs without a fuss

...you sure love johnny3000.
